RADICAL CHANGES COMING.

Senator Mitchell Will Modernize Hawaiian Government.

Senator Mitchell in an interview published in the Portland Oregonian had the following to say regarding the Commission's work in Hawaii:

"My committee has collected a large supply of information to present to Congress," resumed Mr. Mitchell. "We have now to digest that information and to prepare our report. To do this will take some time. The committee will meet at Washington November 12, and will get down to work about the middle of the month. So you see, we will have only about three weeks for our work before Congress convenes. What form our recommendations will take I am not prepared to say. But our report will be the basis of a number of radical changes in the government of the Hawaiian Islands. The laws there are defective—very defective. We reached the islands in the midst of a number of boodle scandals. Improvements are needed in the organic law of the territory. It is now a highly centralized government, without that closely-connected system of administration which is needed for its good operation. The territory has no departments of government to correspond to those of our counties or cities. Everything is under the Governor and the Secretary of the Territory, who are appointed by the President. But these are only a few of the details of our investigation."

Outgoing Claudine List.

All Like Beckley.

The friends of Admiral Beckley in Hilo rejoice at the cordial reception he is receiving at the hands of the Honolulu press. It was here that he was born and here that he displayed his prowess. He has made many conquests but it is probably true that his greatest claim to distinction lies in the fact that he is the only prominent man in Hawaii who has won the entire press of the Islands to his side. There is never a dirty fling in any of the newspapers for the Admiral. What other Hawaiian statesman can say as much?

Solicits Ideas.

James Lewis wishes the TRIBUNE to express his appreciation for the loyal support given him and the ticket in the campaign and on election day. Mr. Lewis solicits free expression from his constituents of their views concerning the needs of this district and Island. He says he desires to represent the views of those who elected him and will gladly give a hearing to all who may have ideas regarding needed legislation.

Hilo Horses Win.

Nullah and Del Vista are doing well on California race tracks this fall. At Los Angeles October 31, Nullah was first in a 1/4 mile race, time 1:01 1/2. Del Vista was winner in the 1/4 mile race time 1:13 1/2. Del Vista was also a second in a 1/4 mile dash in which the winner's time was 1:13 1/2. Mr. McKenzie states that the Hilo string on the Coast is now getting in fine condition after the ocean voyage and that he expects good news from his horses from now on.

The wedding of Miss Helen Desha and Charles Simpson of Honolulu will take place in that city on the evening of November 20th. Rev. S. L. Desha, uncle of the bride, goes to Honolulu today and will officiate at the wedding.

E. Wery and son arrived home last week from a six month's trip to Europe. Mrs. Wery and Miss Wery will arrive next week. The family visited in Brussels and Paris. Mr. Wery reports that he prefers Hawaii to any thing the old world has to offer.

If you want a short order meal go to the Palm. Steaks, chops and all available delicacies ready at a moments notice.

Sunday evening, November 23, there will be a special praise service in the First Foreign Church. The success of former praise service as conducted by Rev. Mr. Nash with the assistance of Mrs. Lewis' choir, was of the first order. Mrs. Lewis is arranging a special program for the next one which will merit a large attendance.

Charles Frazier, manager of the Pioneer Advertising company has been in the city the past week working in behalf of a hand book of Hawaii which he is getting out under the supervision of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce. A large edition will be published presenting in an artistic form the many attractions for tourists in this country. Mr. Frazier's success here guarantees that Hilo will be well represented.

ELKS ENTERTAIN LADIES.

Brilliant Social Gathering Enlivens the B. P. O. E. Club Rooms.

The Hilo Lodge of Elks gave their first public social session last Friday night at the Elk Club rooms. Ladies were invited and the hall and parlors were scarcely adequate to accommodate the throng. The hall was filled with chairs for the occasion and decorations of bannoo and flags beautified the walls.

The guests were assembled by 8:30 when the Grand Zar of the evening, A. C. McKenney mounted the throne and began to issue autocratic edicts. To assist him in maintaining order he appointed Dr. Wachs and W. H. Little as policemen. Wherever these minions of the Zar went the obstreperous Elks covered and dug up blood money.

The program of entertainment was of the most varied sort. Vocal solos were artistically rendered by Mrs. H. L. Ross, Mrs. Bartels and Mr. C. N. Prouty. Mrs. Lewis accompanied each. Besides this excellent music there was a startling array of vaudeville talent from the Lodge membership. I. B. Schoen gave an imitation of Hermann the Great, reproducing some of his most famous tricks of magic. Captain Lake sang like a canary bird. W. C. Cooke gave philosophical discourse on "biting" which is published elsewhere. Homer Ross gave a brief history of the order and explained its objects to the visiting ladies and gentlemen. I. E. Ray the humorist, read from his own works. George Ronitz of Honolulu rendered a high class piano selection. C. N. Prouty disguised as Robert Fitzsimmons gave away the secrets of his success in the ring.

Little Alice Mumby won great applause with her rendition of a story in which she was aided by a long armed man concealed behind a screen.

After the program, the House Committee served all present with salads, sandwiches and lemonade. The latter part of the evening was devoted to dancing.

THE VOLCANO.

Artist Hitchcock Returns With New Sketches of Pele's Realm.

Howard Hitchcock and family returned from the Volcano Tuesday having spent a delightful fortnight in the region of active Kilauea. Mr. Hitchcock made a number of fine sketches of the crater and surrounding volcanoes. He says that the activity of the volcano is at present an exhibition of the grandest sort. One morning the party were favored with the view of an enormous up flow of lava. In the one space which lasted several minutes, the level of the liquid lake of fire raised fully fifty feet. At intervals of quiet this would pour down again in the earth's throat from whence it came. Tuesday morning the display of fire was superior to anything seen in years.

Kilauea Magnificent.

Tuesday evening the Island of Hawaii was thrilled with a gentle earthquake and people familiar with the idiosyncrasies of Halemaumau expected big stories of the activity of the Volcano. The report was not long in coming. Visitors at the volcano during the past four days say that the fountains of fire are grander than they have ever been before. The play of the molten lava has been continuous during the past few days and the big cauldron is rapidly filling up. The renewed activity indicates that visitors may come with assurance that the volcano will not vexatiously slumber while they are present.

Chinese Suicides.

A Chinese gardener committed suicide Thursday morning by hanging himself to a cane flume between eight and nine miles, Oloa. The deed was done at almost the same spot where a Japanese hanged himself a couple of months ago. The parties who discovered the body suspected foul play, but upon investigation Sheriff Overend stated that there was nothing to support the theory. The dead man had money and valuables on his person.

CAPTAIN ANDREWS POISONED.

His Wife Bound Over to Grand Jury Charged With the Murder.

Captain Robert Andrews died at the Hilo Hospital last Saturday morning from the effects of poisoning resulting from strychnine placed in his coffee by Mrs. Andrews at breakfast that morning. The woman, according to Sheriff Andrews, made a full confession of her crime. Before Judge Hapai yesterday morning Mrs. Robert Andrews was charged with murder in the first degree. By her attorney, Carl S. Smith of Smith & Parsons, she entered a plea of not guilty and waived preliminary examination. She was bound over to the Grand Jury.

The crime is the result of domestic trouble that had torn the Andrews household for some time. The night before Mr. Andrews and his wife had had violent scenes. Mrs. Andrews was beside herself with rage and procuring a revolver she hunted up Andrews in the Waikana Saloon. A policeman was called and the revolver taken from her and given to Mr. Andrews who locked it in his safe. Mr. Andrews did not sleep at home that night and when he came home for breakfast his wife was in an unusually angry and jealous mood. When the Japanese woman was serving the breakfast, Mrs. Andrews called her back to the kitchen. She obeyed, taking with her a cup of coffee. Mrs. Andrews put something in the cup and it was taken back to the table. Mr. Andrews noticed a peculiar taste and suspected that his wife had tried to poison him, having words with her on the subject.

Finishing his meal before six o'clock Mr. Andrews went to his work of superintending the discharge of the St. Katherine's cargo. He soon felt the effects of the deadly poison and in spite of the first pains and spasms, managed to reach the hospital and summon medical aid. Before the doctors arrived the fatal spasms had set in, resulting in his speedy death.

The Japanese servant also was poisoned, but she was saved by the prompt action of the physicians. Before his death Mr. Andrews said that he believed his wife had poisoned him. Deputy Sheriff Overend immediately placed her under arrest.

A coroners Jury was impaneled to inquire into the cause of the Captain's death. The jury was composed of Messrs. Geo. N. Day, C. E. Wright, Fred West, J. W. Macintosh, R. T. Guard and C. L. Clement. After examining a number of witnesses a verdict was returned finding that the deceased died from poisoning by strychnine, supposedly administered by his wife.

The funeral of Captain Andrews was held from the First Foreign Church Saturday afternoon. An impressive sermon was preached by Rev. F. L. Nash. The casket was covered with a profusion of floral offerings. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. A. Humburg, R. A. Lucas, R. T. Guard, George Duncker, Captain Carlson and Captain Saunders.

Captain Andrews was well known in Hawaii. He was from New England originally and came to Hawaii as a sailor. For a long time he was an employee of the Wilder Steamship Co., but in recent years he has been working for H. Hackfeld & Co., having charge of the loading and unloading of their ships in this port.

THE EASTERN STAR.

One of the Best Orders in America.

At last Grand Chapter of the Illinois Brothers, C. H. Bowers paid an earnest tribute to the Order. Among other eloquent words he said:

"I love the Eastern Star; I love its principles, I love its teachings. They are the light of our Order—the vital air of our existence, and they have taught us, as I believe, like Abou Ben Adhem, 'to love our fellowman,' and make right living easy for all mankind. Its principles are a lamp to our feet and a light to our pathway—a signal light, hung up amid the gloom of the gathering night, to light the pathway of every Eastern Star through life, and he who would seek to destroy one of its tenets has no right to say, 'So may it ever be.'"

"You have built a home for the aged and infirm—a blessing to the unfortunate, a monument to your worth and work. It is the unfolding of a great principle in the right direction. Where could the flower of our Star's fair womanhood bloom in greater beauty than in the garden of charity, warmed in the sunshine of sympathy, and moistened by the dew of loving kindness? Ah, my friends, our Order is indeed sympathetic—it has in it the elements of greatness—its principles stir our hearts and warm our feelings for all mankind; and so long as its principles are the pole-star of our brotherhood, so long will the Order of the Eastern Star shed lustre and each of its heroines be of increasing interest to all mankind. The Order today savors not of death; it has a relish of eternity."

"It is a privilege to belong to the Eastern Star—An Order whose power and influence for good is felt wherever the sky bends in civilized lands. Its principles and teachings are ennobling and uplifting honored and respected by all good men. And while it is a great privilege to thus enjoy its benefits, it also carries with it duties and obligations, duties to our families, and duties to one another as Stars. We must not forget our obligations; we must not be too selfish. Remember that as Stars we are free born and equal—no test for admission involving social standing, wealth or attainment of the individual. In the chapter-room, as in the grave, 'All ranks are leveled and the shepherd's crook is laid aside the sceptre.'"

"Our Order stands for honor and purity, and is the embodiment of those virtues which tend to build up a true womanhood and a noble manhood. It teaches us to have relations outside and beyond ourselves, and that we are not to live for self alone. Well may we be proud of our Order which has for its light the Star of the East. Under its ray the golden chain of love links men and women together in the promulgation of its principles. Here we may find woven into the warp of the Masonic mantle the woof of woman's devotion."

FOR A RECOUNT.

Republican Managers Claim Ballots in Kalapana Should Go Out.

The Republican managers in Hilo have decided to attempt to throw out the precinct of Kalapana, Puna on the ground that the election in that precinct was illegally conducted. They will also move for a recount of the Hilo precinct. The specific grounds for charging illegality at Kalapana are not given out but it is known the claim will be made that important safeguards required by law were not carried out. The Hilo precinct, they claim, was not properly counted, the judges of election, allowing themselves to be bulldozed by energetic Home Rulers. If Kalapana is thrown out and Hilo is given a correct count it will make a startling change in the complexion of the Islands representation in the Legislature. The claim is made that this move would seat both Desha and Paris in the Senate and Lewis, Paty, Pritchard and Purdy in the House. All of these are Republicans except Purdy.

Kauni Notes.

Recent rains have filled up the McBryde reservoirs and the pumps have shut down for the season.

Mr. H. A. Jaeger is building a stone breakwater at Kukuila Bay near the Spouting Horn west of Koloa, which will make it a very safe and convenient little harbor. Being at the terminus of the McBryde railway system it will be a very convenient landing.

Mr. H. A. Jaeger is leasing a considerable tract of upland mauka of Koloa on which he proposes to raise hay and alfalfa. He will also conduct a dairy.

The Lihue Art Exhibition will be held this year the first year in December. It will consist of all kinds of art and fancy work. Mr. J. M. Lydgate will have charge of it.

The Koloa Road Road under the intelligent and efficient management of Mr. W. D. McBryde is finishing a bit of very welcome macadamizing on the main street of Koloa. This street used to be a sea of mud in rainy weather.

At a meeting of the Lihue Hall Club on the evening of November 6th, the report of the Finance and Building Committee was presented showing the total cost of the hall to have been $3924. There is an unpaid balance of $542 standing against it. Constitution and By-laws were adopted and officers elected and the secretary was instructed to take the necessary steps to secure a charter and insure the building.

His Fourth Birthday.

Master Harry Weight celebrated the fourth anniversary of his birthday last Friday at the home of his parents on Waiuanuue street. In the afternoon troops of boys and girls arrived and congratulated their young host. The children romped till evening. Harry has all his life been addicted to the bottle and has gone to sleep each night in his crib with the nourishing vial within easy reach. Last Saturday, he heroically put such childish things behind him. He took his bottle stealthily to the wood house, placed it on a board and smashed it with a stick of stove wood. He then announced to his friends and the household that he was now a man and would henceforth do without his bottle.
